CRITERION I – CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 – Curriculum Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 – Institution has the mechanism for well planned curriculum delivery and documentation. Explain in 500 words

The institution maintains its tradition of quality preservice and pays proper attention to planning, implementation and documentation of curriculum aspects . The college makes sure that each and every necessary information is given to the students on time. New students are given all necessary information in detail through college brochure and the website . These details provide a view of curriculum related aspects such as the programmes, courses, timetable, vacations etc. There are four undergraduate courses and one PG course run by the college during the session. These courses include BA, BSC ( Med-Non Medical, and ) and Bcom. At the same time, Bcom ( Honours) is also a part of the courses run by the institution. Mcom is the only PG course available in the college. The programmes offered as undergraduate courses are facilitated with elective options. The session begins with the preparation of the academic calendar which is in consonance with the affiliating university`s calendar. Then the time table is devised and all the HODs hold departmental meetings. The Head of each department imparts guidance to the teaching staff concerned with regard to the preparation and implementation of their lesson plans, as well as regarding utilisation of modern techniques such as power-point presentation and E-notes. The plan for each course clearly divides the entire course into smaller units required for proper information, adjustment and motivation of the students. The HODs concerned hold review meetings and keep checking the progress of the syllabus covered. The outcome of the aforesaid programme is accessible through the college website. It is visible in the way the college website is equipped with lesson plans targeting familiarisation of the students with the syllabus prescribed. The college cherishes a strong internal evaluation system for testing and assessing the learning progress of the students concerned through class tests. The Mentor-mentee programme strengthens the teacher-learner bond. Each faculty member imparts two assignments in his or her class. An educational exercise is always experiential and experimental in nature. Hence educational tours assume huge importance for students as far as experiential learning is concerned. At the same time, seminars and group discussions are given due place in the teaching -learning process. The college has two ICT enabled rooms (32 teachers making their use) singularly dedicated to the technic-based learning. The institution cherishes a healthy teacher-taught relationship. The faculty members are actively involved in maintaining and updating their individual educational standard so that the students may follow them for their own educational betterment. The teaching staff regularly visit library and keep in touch with the latest developments in their respective disciplines through quality books in the library. The Geography department of the college organizes field projects through surveys. The aforesaid details adequately explains the institution's singular commitment to the exquisite educational standard.

The questions are related to the completion of syllabus, internal evaluation system of the college, the mode of teaching etc. The students are given a time frame in which they have to fill the feedback forms. A meeting of the Alumni Association is called and a copy of syllabi of all the courses being run by college is provided to each and every member. During the next meeting, the ideas and suggestion of alumni are sought for designing feedback forms based on recent trends and developments. The alumni come up with new ideas, thereafter the questions are framed for feedback forms. The Executive members of alumni association are involved in every step of designing feedback forms. The teachers of the college give their suggestions in designing the feedback forms in staff meetings. The teachers make useful suggestions related to the relevant changes in courses. Students are further asked questions related to percentage of syllabus covered in classrooms. Thus the strengths and weaknesses of curricula are identified. The suggestions of stakeholders are presented before the teachers` committee. An action plan for curriculum enrichment is approved by the teachers committee. The Action plan is then uploaded on the College Website and appropriate steps are taken by the IQAC in the following session. The institution respects its great values of
